Friday Halloween Bash: The last Bash of the 2018 season was well attended and everyone was in the spirit of Halloween with lots of great costumes. 1st Place costume winners were a very scary Michael Sunzeri for the men and the women's winner was Loanne Rube as a clumsy cleaver wielding Julia Child and her unfortunate bunny. Check out the club's website for more photos. www.villagesbocceclub.com I know I'm looking forward to the 2019 Friday afternoon bashes.

Membership/Elections Meeting will be held on Monday, November 12, 2018 at Foothill Center from 1 – 3 p.m. Lots of candidates this year for board positions, so don't miss your opportunity to help select the board of directors for the Bocce Club for 2019. Thank you to all the candidates for stepping forward to volunteer and help our club grow and move forward into the 2019 season.

'Even' if you don't want a board position, there are plenty of jobs for volunteers. Helping is so welcome and appreciated throughout the year and it makes the directors jobs so much easier. At the meeting on November 12th, Marion Logie our club's president will reflect on the club's 2018 accomplishments and what plans 2019 will bring. A copy of the 2018 Review will be provided to each member. You can take the opportunity to fill out a small form if you'd like to volunteer, which will be attached to the ballot with the names of the candidates for your selection. Following voting you are cordially invited to a Wine and Cheese Reception. The Bocce Club Board hopes you'll all come out and cast your vote and then enjoy your afternoon with a glass of wine with friends.

Tournament Season for 2018 has ended and awards were presented at the Awards Dinner this past Saturday, November 3rd. Congratulations to all the Captains and team members for a season well played. Over $1,300 in prize money was presented, along with Achievement Certificates to each 1st and 2nd place winner of each tournament. Lots of teams sat together and enjoyed the evening with good food, music and great company. Thank you to Candy Stonehouse Social Director, her assistant Elaine Murphy and her committee for a splendid evening. Also, thank you to Marion Logie, David Cook and Barbara Orlando for helping coordinate the Awards portion of the evening.
